Hello building department,

I recently purchased a property in Barrington hills in an R1 zoning district and I wanted to discuss with you the possibility of establishing a flower farm.

A few things we are interested in doing:

Roadside stand (I see this is allowed as an accessory to agriculture)

A U pick flower farm (I see agriculture is an allowed primary and accessory use of R1)

Putting a sign up front for the property name not necessarily the business. (Will comply with sign regulation in code)

I'd like to speak with someone to go over the logistics and feasibility of this.

Question:

Regarding primary and accessory use, I use this as my primary residence but how does this differ from living on a farm?

Address:

315 Dundee Rd, Barrington, IL

Hello again,

I wanted to follow up on my previous email to get some answers on getting our farm up and running while maintaining Barrington Hills code

Thanks

Chris

Thanks for getting back to me. I had stopped in probably 2-3 weeks ago asking about it in person. We have a more established plan now so I can discuss it more in depth of primary options and backup plans for compliance.

Chris
